PROJECTS

Molten-Flow-Miner: Process Intelligence Framework | LINK

- Engineered a Python Process Intelligence pipeline to map & analyze unstructured, multi-modal manufacturing telemetry.
- Applied LLMs to semantically abstract noisy IoT and operator logs into standardized business stages.
- Built sequence models using NetworkX graph inference to map DAGs and calculate transition probabilities.
- Implemented bounded cycle detection algorithms to mathematically isolate rework loops and process deviations.

AI-Driven Cricket Player Performance Prediction |LINK

- Developed a Random Forest regressor to predict fantasy cricket player performance using historical match statistics.
- Designed a custom fantasy scoring metric by combining batting, bowling, and consistency-based performance indicators.
- Built an automated pipeline for data preprocessing, feature engineering, fantasy score prediction, and team generation.
- Used Docker to deploy a portable app that automatically generates the optimal Dream11 team.

Statistical Hypothesis Testing with Python|LINK

- Implemented core statistical inference techniques -- including hypothesis testing, p-values, confidence intervals, and Type I/Type II errors -- using Python's pandas library, going beyond coursework to independently build a notebook of comparative and inferential calculations. Strengthened applied statistical reasoning and data manipulation skills relevant to business analytics and decision-making.

Molecular Dynamics Simulation of a Lennard-Jones Oscillator (Verlet Algorithm)|LINK

- Simulated an Argon atom's motion in a Lennard-Jones potential using the Verlet integration algorithm, implemented from scratch in Python (NumPy, Matplotlib).
- Derived the stability condition for oscillation analytically and validated it through numerical simulation.
- Analyzed energy conservation and force/potential-energy behavior via time-evolution plots, confirming stability of the chosen timestep.
