PROFILE

An Interior architect turned product designer, currently pursuing M.Des at IIT Hyderabad. I work across UX research, interaction design, and product design with hands-on experience conducting user interviews, competitive audits, journey mapping, building research frameworks, prototyping and usability testing. I care about making complex systems feel simple to the people using them.

EXPERIENCE

User Experience Design Intern, *DemanualAI, Chennai (*Jun & Jul 2026)

- Running end-to-end UX research for a compliance intelligence product, such as participant recruitment, screener design, and structured interviews across five user segments (founders, freelancers, CAs, sole proprietors).
- Built a research compendium synthesising Reddit and app store data across four competitor products; developed a FigJam affinity mapping framework.
- Produced Market research including competitive audit reports with SWOT analysis and first-impression UX frameworks for two AI products such as Dataviz (conversational BI) and Skryb (AI document workspace).

Interior Designer, *Livspace, Chennai (*Oct 2024 - Feb 2025)

- Delivered residential design projects end-to-end from client brief to material specification, coordinating across vendors, contractors, and project managers to ensure design intent reached execution.

Interior Design Intern, *Anusha Shetty Designs Luxury Atelier, Bangalore (*Jun 2023 - Dec 2023)

- Supported high-end residential and hospitality projects across concept development, material sourcing, and client-facing presentations; produced spatial visualisations used directly in proposals.
